

RPS AUDIOVISUALES will be featuring ONELAN at the Total Media Show in Madrid.

Following the success of the first Total Media event, this show has become the first professional event for the Out of Home Digital Advertising industry in Spain, focussing on the Digital Signage and New Media industries. The show will open the doors to visitors on September 30th until 1st October at IFEMA, Madrid Fairgrounds, with new exhibition areas for electronic systems integration companies (AV Systems, cable, connectors and wireless solutions; AV control and switching devices, etc.); mobile marketing, interactive kiosks, advertising and marketing agencies, showing innovative solutions for dynamic digital communication.
